By JACK VEICK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Thanksgiving, with its festive turkey, its warm cheer and its football, is the most important day of the year for the college football fan.

The Thanksgiving game marks the official close of the most successful season in the history of the sport. It has been a season of thrilling games, of brilliant plays, of great games, of the best of the best.

Most of the big games of the season have wound up in a decisive manner, and the Thanksgiving game will be the last of the season. It will be a game of the best of the best, a game of the best of the best.

Gibson Posts Big Forfeit

New York, Nov. 24.—Bully Gibson, manager of Benny Leonard, has posted with Tex Rickard a forfeit of $10,000 that the world's lightweight champion will scale 125 pounds at 2 o'clock for his 15-round championship contest with Joe Willard, Friday, November 25.

Promoter Rickard insisted that Gibson put up this amount to insure his protegee's presence at that hour on the day of the fight. For Eddie, Mike Lewis came all the way from Chicago to give Rickard $2,000 that his man will make the fight.

For several years there has been talk of Leonard's inability to make the lightweight limit. In view of these stories Rickard asked Gibson if Benny could make the weight.

Gibson answered: "Will you put a $10,000 forfeit? Gibson answered: 'Yes, I will.'"

TIGERS LEAVE: PLAY HIGH AT ALBUQUERQUE

Will Meet One of New Mexico's Strongest and Fastest Eleventh Thanksgiving Day.

By TOM CHAVENAS.

A large crowd of stamping, yelling, cheering high school students gathered at the station station Tuesday night to give the Tigers a send-off to Albuquerque, where the last game of the season will be played.

The crowd, composed of some of the most loyal students of the "Hill," gathered at 7 o'clock and were led in a solemn procession to the station.

A snake dance was held just before the boys left, the long line of students circling in and out among the benches singing "Hill School Victorious."

The game with Albuquerque marks the close of one of the greatest Tiger football seasons in history, not only from the standpoint of the team, but from the attitude shown by the high school fans.

Football, 'The Inside Game'; Use Of The Straight Arm

By EDDIE CASEY, Harvard Star.

IN THE open field running that I have done, the factor of greatest importance to me has been the use of the straight arm. I really think that this is a special play that has been more or less neglected by the average coach.

To make the straight arm most effective, it is necessary to combine it with certain movement and position of the body. The arm, for instance, is not carried straight out in an extended position throughout the running by the player. It is, rather, carried bent back at the elbow, and carried close to the body, but at the same time in such a position as to be easily put into action.

Let Your Arm Go Free.

As the tackle approaches you, you judge the precise amount of arm, allowing the runner to continue straight on his way until he is within the next few feet. When it comes to using the straight arm on a heavy tackle, the runner who is comparatively light must use his body to help him. He leans forward, keeping his head low, and as the tackle comes, he hits the man on the head or shoulder.

A light runner who is comparatively heavy must use his body to help him. He leans forward, keeping his head low, and as the tackle comes, he hits the man on the head or shoulder.

New Managers in the Majors

At least six of the sixteen major league clubs will be equipped with new managers before the opening of the next season. Johnny Meyer has already taken hold of the Chicago Cubs and Hugh Duffy is in charge of the Boston Red Sox.

There are two vacancies in each of the major leagues. In the National League, the Philadelphia Phillies and the St. Louis Cardinals have vacancies. In the American League, the Detroit Tigers and the Cleveland Indians have vacancies.

Arthur Fletcher, former captain of the Giants, refused the nomination as manager of the Phillies. Fletcher was willing to continue as an advisor for the club if his salary figures are met, but he isn't willing to accept responsibility for the team unless he is well paid and the club adopts a more liberal policy.

Manager Branch Rickey has lined up 22 likely youngsters for Official Try Out.
